Are Rounded up by the Quebec Authorities in Farm House at Lavitrie

THE MEN HAD THE MOST ELABORATE PLANT

Their Workhouse Stacked Like an Arsenal With Guns and Ammunition

By Bulletin Leased Wire.
MONTREAL, Dec. 19.—Early today the largest gang of counterfeiters ever arrested in this part of the country was taken into custody in a farm house five miles from the village of Lavitrie. They were rounded up by Dominion and provincial police, led by Inspector Pariseau and Chief McCaskie.

It is not believed that any of the counterfeiters had been placed in circulation as the output of the plant, amounting to about six hundred bills, was found in the shack. It is also said that the gang's reason for counterfeiting United States money was that there would be less likelihood of early detection.

Men Taken Into Custody.
The men who were caught at the farm house and taken to the jail at Joliet were thirty-three. Among them were Frederick Hixon, Edward Pariseau, Philip Pariseau and Eugene Gagnier. The man arrested here was Alfred Gagnier, an engraver in the employ of the Herald Publishing Co.

Borders the street the police claim, to have seen a most elaborate counterfeiting plant, including a spinning press, plates, specially prepared paper and everything necessary for the counterfeiting of the United States ten dollar gold certificate.

Farm House Like Arsenal.
Chief McCaskie said tonight that the farm house in which the gang operated was fitted like an arsenal. Shot guns and revolvers with plenty of ammunition were found, and the gang had evidently intended to put up a battle had they not been taken by surprise.

It was before dawn when the police reached the house. They spun it down the door and found the men with drawn revolvers and were upon the counterfeiting plant before they could make a move to get out of bed.

The raiders left Montreal Thursday night and got off at Joliet, where they secured warrants for the arrest of the counterfeiters. They left for Lavitrie, where they remained until 1 o'clock in the morning.

Entire Outfit Seized.
Contrasted by revenue in the hands of police the counterfeiters became convinced that they would be useless to the law. Every member of the gang was seized as the five men were forced to sign the printed money. The printed paper and all the counterfeiting outfit found in the house, as well as the guns and revolvers belonging to the gang, were loaded into a farmer's wagon and taken to the station to be shipped to Joliet, where it will be used as evidence against the gang who are arranged in court tomorrow.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 19.—A significant motion will be made in the Manitoba legislature according to the notice given by Harry C. Simpson, Conservative member for Virden today. The significance lies in that it comes from a member of the government and advocates the removal of the counterfeiting duty upon wheat, to give the farmers the benefit of the Underwood tariff.

The motion recites: Whereas the congress of the United States of America has, by recent legislation, reduced the duty on wheat and wheat products entering the U. S. A. and whereas provision was made in said legislation for total removal of such wheat entering the U. S. A. from any foreign country who would likewise receive such duty.

And whereas it is the opinion of this house that such removal of duty by the government of the United States of America from the U. S. A. would be beneficial to the agriculture of Manitoba.

Therefore, be it resolved that, in the opinion of this house the parliament of Canada should assist such legislation as would give the farmers of Manitoba the benefit of the counterfeiting duty on wheat and wheat products entering the U. S. A. under tariff.

The resolution is doubly significant following Hon. Robert Rogers' campaign speech, in which he stated that the government of Canada had failed to do what was in the interest of the people of Canada then free wheat it would be.

A similar motion is also to be moved by G. H. McNeil, Liberal, but differs in the preamble stating that the prices are higher in the United States.

Some Principals in the Hutton Will Case

Evidence Given Yesterday by Insanity Expert of Highly Technical Nature

FURTHER HEARING
ADJOURNED TO JAN.

Lawyers Show That They Have Made Deep Study of the Case

All sitting and standing room was filled in the court room, and crowds thronged in the corridors, and halls to see the principals in the Hutton will litigation, and hear snippets of the evidence yesterday afternoon. It had been announced that R. O. Bull, an executor of the will of a man whose name has been mentioned during the trial almost as much as that of the late George Hutton, would be on the witness stand, and this fact was probably responsible for the unusual interest in the afternoon proceedings. All were doomed to disappointment, however, for just prior to the commencement of the session Mr. Justice Walsh stated it was quite evident that the case could not be completed by Saturday night, so there was no use in rushing matters. After Mr. Dawson's evidence the court adjourned until after the vacation. The next session will therefore be on January 1st.

This was a welcome announcement to the counsel on both sides, for since the commencement of the case had been one continual grind for them. They received the news almost like schoolboys during the afternoon instead of raising continual objections to matters of procedure, and laughing and joked, and brought every ounce of humor that it was possible to bring out of the rather technical evidence of the expert from the Ponds asylum, Dr. Dawson.

Lawyers Show Deep Study.
Probably the thing that struck spectators most at yesterday afternoon's hearing was the wonderful study of the case by the defense, and Messrs. Frank Ford, and G. M. Bigger, for the plaintiff, have made a study of the case, and have shown a weapons time, for they found that the counsel had read almost every known authority on insanity, and chatted and questioned during the afternoon instead of raising continual objections to matters of procedure, and laughing and joked, and brought every ounce of humor that it was possible to bring out of the rather technical evidence of the expert from the Ponds asylum, Dr. Dawson.

Meeting Was a Peaceful One

(Special to the Bulletin by Joe Price)

1915-1916, Dec. 19—Thirty teams are now under the wing of the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association and will play games according to schedules adopted at the executive meeting of the association held here tonight. This is more than twice the number which have in previous years played under the auspices of the association, and it is altogether probable that a number of other districts will be brought in time before the opening of another season.

Ten of the teams will be playing in the senior division of the league, and the remainder will be grouped in the intermediate section.

The first senior schedule to open will be the Edmonton division, with a game on the south side rink on Christmas day between the south side Athletic Association and the Pennants. The Inter-City series will open on New Year's day with a game between the two Edmonton teams entered, and another in Calgary between the two Calgary teams, the Centrals and Chinooks. The meeting on the whole was a very quiet and peaceful one, quite in contrast with some hockey meetings which have been held in this city in the past.

The only time when the tension was very great was when Dr. Ken Williams asked for permission to play an exhibition game on Christmas day in Edmonton between the south side Athletic Association and the Pennants. Dr. Williams, who is a physician, was opposed to the proposition on the ground that the league should not allow Christmas games. It was finally agreed that permission for this should be given, and the rider was attached that the northern district could make a game in Edmonton on New Year's Day if this was desired. The formation of the Western Canada Hockey Association was discussed at some length, and the meeting was closed by President Pearson's power to continue.

have the same distinguishing features that make "STARR" Skates so popular with the men. There are several different styles—all elegantly designed and yet exceedingly strong. Two of the most popular styles are shown above.

The ladies' "STARR" Rex has a slight curve on runner and can be used for fancy as well as straight skating. It is most popular among the ladies because of its high quality and moderate price.

Ladies' "STARR" Rex is modeled after the famous "STARR" Regal which has a triple toe symmetry and grace of design. It is an extremely handsome skate and well deserves its popularity.

The blades are specially tempered and welded steel which requires very little sharpening.

All "STARR" Skates are unconditionally guaranteed—if they break bring them back and get a new pair free.

Laying Challenger's Keel

Since it was officially decided that there should be another international yacht race, there has been considerable activity on both sides of the Atlantic. The British, the Royal English sportsman, who for several years past has been contending for another challenge at the cup, was especially delighted with the decision of the New York Yacht Club to let the cup be again contested for and no one has been more active than he in the effort to produce a boat that will do credit to England.

This picture shows the laying of the New York Yacht Club. Sir Thomas is seen putting the first keel into the water.

Alberta Rugby Union Will Fight For Alterations in the Western Association—Will Abolish Two Scrimmage Men, Cutting Team Down to Twelve Men

(Special to the Bulletin by Joe Price)

1915-1916, Dec. 19—If rugby in Western Canada is played in the future under the same system as the same rules as have governed in the past, it will be through the efforts of the Alberta Rugby Football Union who today decided to make a slight at the annual meeting of the association of changes of a complete revision of the playing rules of the game, together with the incorporation of number of drastic measures which will make the game very different from that played by the O.C.F.U., a number of years ago under the old Burnside rule.

President H. B. Pearson, of the A.R.F.U., and Deacon White, manager of the Edmonton Eskimos, will attend the meeting of the Western Canada Union in Regina in January and will insist upon the delegates of that meeting taking some steps to alter the present rules, and will advocate a thorough revision of the same.

In addition to revising the rules so that it will be possible for the ordinary person to understand the meaning of them, the Alberta delegates will ask that the new rules incorporate the snap back system of putting the ball into play; that the two outside scrummers be abolished, this cutting the team down to twelve men; that scoring by kicks to the goal shall be done away with, and that the "three yard rule" be changed so that it will be less difficult of interpretation, but still give a certain amount of protection to a half-back receiving a kick to the line.

The reason taken by the Alberta Union regarding the rules is not a new one, as at the last annual meeting (see Alberta delegate was instructed to ask for a revision of the same rule). But this year the Alberta Union, by sending two delegates down to the meeting, both of whom are recognized rugby authorities, the Alberta Union hopes to see these changes put into force by next season.

Although there was a deal of discussion over the suggested changes in the rules, the meeting was unanimous in all the decisions when it came down to vote for the alterations. The delegates will feel that they have the support of all the teams in the Western Canada Union.

Dr. Mason, president of the C.F.U., who has been a student of the game for the past 20 years, made a telling speech in favor of the adoption of the Canadian Rugby Union rules, and the delegates of the old Burnside rule, and of the light which occurred when the attempt was made to have them adopted as the playing rules of the Canadian Rugby Union.

When Burnside first formed his set of rules it was president of the Intercollegiate Union. The C.F.U. adopted the rules, and the Intercollegiate Union meeting, which was then in favor of the changes.

Stewart was not, and the McGill delegates individually were in favor of the change, but came to the meeting instructed not to vote for the change in the rules, so the motion was lost. Then at the ballot for the adoption of the rules by the Canadian Rugby Union it was impossible to incorporate all of the features of the Burnside rule. Those who favored them fought hard, and finally a compromise was arrived at, the Burnside rule on the Canadian rugby team was changed, and the Burnside rule was abolished, and the Canadian rule was adopted.

In 1905, over the process, the Burnside rule and the change were made, it is only a matter of time before the Burnside rule will be put into play, and I think it is a pity that the Burnside rule was not put into play by a referendum. People cannot see the ball and they put it in silence until the half-back has taken it.

Furthermore, I think that I can conservatively place that seventy-five per cent of the scrumming during the

Bowling Scores

The Eskimos took two games from the Centrals in the bowling league during last night. The scores are as follows:

Miller	200	192	198	141
Graham	178	171	208	117
Wheeler	159	173	160	144
Mathews	127	—	—	147
King	189	169	182	133
Simonsen	167	162	164	149
Centrals	484	558	562	244
Edmonton	100	109	126	235
Gordon	118	156	146	222
Mullen	145	109	159	243
Jarvis	158	176	202	236
Morris	158	176	202	236

past season were illegal. No one can tell whether the ball was put in play correctly, except that man who did it, and when he doesn't do it right he is not very likely to say anything about it. Anything that we can do to simplify the matter of putting the ball into play, make it easy for the referees to enforce the rules, and make the game more interesting from a spectators stand point should be done.

All the delegates were asked to speak on this question, and all with the exception of Ken Williams spoke strongly in favor of it. Ken Williams, who was in attendance as a second representative of the Burnside rule, thought that the union should not take such a step.

W. M. Edwards then spoke on the proposition endorsing the idea, and said that as far as he knew all those teams which had played under the Burnside rule were in favor of the change, and everything in favor of it, and he would support a change.

President H. B. Pearson outlined his experience with the Burnside rule when they were first introduced in 1910, he having played under the rules, and stated that he found them an improvement over the present system to a large extent.

Deacon White then struck a keynote when he stated that he thought that the entire playing rules of the game should be thoroughly gone over, and he would like to see several radical changes made, including the introduction of the snap back system, the abolishment of the three yard rule and the kick to goal ball line, but he thought that the most important thing to do was to have the entire code of rules gone over and set down in plain English.

The abolition of the three yard rule was then brought up by Deacon White, who made a motion that this rule be abolished, and that a "fair catch" be substituted. This motion was lost for lack of a seconder, but an informal discussion followed, and a compromise arrived at the meeting not being quite sure as to the best way to settle the matter, it was agreed that the present rule was no quite satisfactory, because it left too much to the judgment of the referee.

SAY NEW ARMY IN CITY UNNECESSARY

But Building Trades Council Thinks Work Necessary to Won't Object

On Wednesday evening last the building trades council held their regular meeting when there was a very large attendance. A communication was read protesting against the building of the army in this city, but although the delegates recognized that it was intended for their own undoing, and was a barrier for so-called defense of the country, they were of the opinion that what was most needed in 1914 was not the army, but the navy, and in this building there would be employment for many who were now without employment, as in action now.

Several business circles reported large number of ill men and a delegate called attention to the fact that Burns jacking plant was being erected and implied under illegal union conditions.

SOUTH SIDE BRANCH

The regular meeting of the Edmonton south side branch of the Amalgamated Carpenters, local 1010, was held in the Adams Hall south side on Friday, December 19. The delegates to the trades and labor council reported and were received for the evening.

SEATTLE HAS MANY UNEMPLOYED PEOPLE

Conditions in That City Are Reported to be Very Bad at Present

Although there has been much complaint regarding unemployment in Edmonton, reports from other cities both on this and the other side of the bay go to show that conditions here are much better than in most other places. Although there are, of course, many cases of unemployment, it is especially among unskilled laborers, and this is inevitable when farm lands and railways mean cash in the city in the winter after such has been shut down in the country.

The local weather so far this winter has resulted in much work being obtainable that could not under other conditions have been obtained, and for this reason tradesmen have been sent reasonably home, to many other places, and the state of affairs does not exist, as is evidenced by a circular which has been received by the local union carpenters, from F. M. Smith, secretary of the district council of carpenters of Seattle. The circular states that there are thousands of men out of work in Seattle. Tradesmen and mechanics have been compelled to accept piece work, and have been working two days in the week, distributed into four half days at $2.75 per day, on work amounting to $10.00 and count, to relieve the physical distress caused by there being no work in that city.

ELECT SECRETARY

A special meeting of the Amalgamated Carpenters was held on Thursday evening in the Labor Hall, where the president, Harry Wood, occupied the chair. The principal business was appointment of a secretary, and before closing for business the evening officer, Harry Hutterworth, who has for the past twelve months been the local secretary, was elected.

After the many imitations were discussed, Bro. W. W. Jamison was elected for the coming year. The following were received on the delegates to the trades and labor council: G. H. Myers, A. A. S. Smith, and A. McNeill.

The delegates to the district council of carpenters were also elected: Bro. William Stephenson, H. Thompson, T. W. Jones and J. A. Smith.

The social business meeting of the local socialist party was held on Tuesday evening last, when Executive Committee reported that Mr. E. # PEACE RIVER CROSSING

View of the West Side of the River as Taken from the East Side

PACE RIVER CROSSING will be the next large city north of Edmonton. When we say this we believe it. We believed it three years ago. It was then we began buying all the close in land we could get. Within the last three years we have acquired considerably over 400 acres. We now have it all in one safe. There is a natural demand for some of our property at the present time on which to build business blocks and residences. We are offering part of it for sale at a very reasonable price per lot having in view the efficient use of part of our property in order to enhance the value of the rest. Therefore, parties buying from us now are getting in on the ground floor. The E. D. & B. T. Railway have bought almost one thousand acres of land north and adjoining our present registered townsite, which is on the west side of the Peace River, thereby putting their seal of approval on our location.

OUR PRICES are from $300.00 to $500.00 per lot, on-half cash, 6 and 12 months, with interest at 8 per cent., or we will allow 10 per cent. off for all cash and we will deliver a transfer at once.

A well known Eastern paper claims that the difference between a real estate man and a shark is: The real estate man buys land and holds it until there is a natural demand for it. A shark buys and sells two years ahead of time. We claim to be real estate men.

The explosion took place behind Holloway avenue, which backs up to the wall of the prison, and which they are separated by a dry ditch 25 feet wide. It was at the back of the house No. 2 of 12, the first being empty as was a neighbor and his family, that the explosion occurred. The last was a herd of a mile away. It started at the neighborhood just after nine p.m. and was followed immediately by another more deafening explosion, according to one person, it was seen something in all directions.

Two Holes in Wall

Whistles and shouts brought the police to the scene, which were there were two holes in the foot of the prison wall, each about a foot square, and six inches deep. The wall was not penetrated, and beyond the blackening and chipping of the bricks little damage was evident. Long pieces of iron were found in the wall, and the police were looking for the point of the wall where the explosion was in the wall. ## Auditors May Recommend Abolition of the Stores And Works Department.

Hyde and McIntosh, It Is Understood, Will Urge Curtailment of Purchasing Powers of This Department or Also Its Discontinuance—Work of Special Audit Nearing Conclusion

That the stores and works department of this city has not proven a success, practically since its inception, and that it should either be abolished or entirely re-organized, is a total recommendation, will be one of the recommendations contained in the report of the city's special auditors, Hyde and McIntosh, according to information secured today by the Bulletin.

The special audit of the city covering the past three years is now nearing completion. It is expected that Hyde and McIntosh will have their report ready for the city council by the first week in January. All the departments have been thoroughly covered in this audit, and while it has been impossible to obtain any information directly from these conducting the audit, as to any discoveries made or recommendations they are likely to be offered, it is known that the operations of the stores and works department are the organization of that branch of the city's activities has not met with the full approval of these auditors. Not only will the audit show that the city might benefit by the abolition of the stores and works department, but it is understood that the auditors will recommend that possibly the city might benefit by the abolition of the department entirely.

The feature on which even will be laid, is on the present purchasing powers of the department. In order to save the stores and works department a fair trial, the city commissioners some time ago issued orders that all departments should purchase all their supplies through the stores and works department. This, it is now believed, has not been a very wise move. The stores department has had too much power in making purchases, and the special auditor will urge that at least the purchasing powers of this department be curtailed and generally revised.

The dearest sympathy of hosts of friends go to Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins, who received a cable yearterday telling of Mr. J. D. Mercer's death in Honolulu on Thursday. The late Mr. Mercer was very popular in Edmonton, and the news of his death will cast a cloud over many.

The annual ball to be given by the Westward Ho! chapter of the I. O. O. F. to be held on New Year's Eve in the Empire auditorium, is looked forward to with much expectation. For the ladies are "making up" for the occasion. The pitch and tossers' race will be used as an asset to the ladies. Members of the Edmonton militia in their uniforms will add color to the scene. All invitations are to be answered by the 25th.

The "Other Woman," Ellis Kingsley and the artistic musical program presented at the Empire Theatre on Thursday night, by Ethel Burns and Lotta Cotterall Fleming, drew an appreciative audience, whose applause was very interesting. "The Other Woman," a sketch altogether wholesome, portrays that type of woman who some modern fiction writers try to persuade themselves as well as their readers' is passing away. Such a play, so artistically rendered, is a stimulant. The artist showed their art in the choice of their frocks as well as in the interpretation of Kingsley's sketch. In the "Other Woman" was adorably rendered in an amusing, yet charming, and draped in accordance with fashion's latest mandate: bands of silk, enhanced the richness of the texture.

Miss Fleming, as the pretty young widow, whose steps had been directed in sunny paths, chose a fresh new conventional in design—more tastefully frivolous. It was a shell-pink satin chemise, with gauzy webbing, that type of woman who some modern fiction writers try to persuade themselves as well as their readers' is passing away. Such a play, so artistically rendered, is a stimulant. The artist showed their art in the choice of their frocks as well as in the interpretation of Kingsley's sketch. In the "Other Woman" was adorably rendered in an amusing, yet charming, and draped in accordance with fashion's latest mandate: bands of silk, enhanced the richness of the texture.

White reminding her charming V-neck gown Miss Fleming was becomingly graceful in rose-red green satin chemise, with an overture of exquisite princess lace.

Mrs. Burns' black regained satin frock was worn with striking effect. Both artists are seeking congratulations of their many friends who will look forward to such another treat.

Some Whys of Christmas

About 200 A.D. a boy was born in Syria, whose parents called him Nicholas. Though that was a man's name, he possessed the nature of a child, for he chose to keep ever merry, merrily, and simple, and therefore the children do him worship before all other saints.

The modern child, "Santa Claus," is a Dutch contraction of "Sankt Nikolaus," "sankel" means "secretly" and in the dead of night he performed when he assisted these young women out of poverty by leaving scuttled purses into their beds after they had retired.

The idea that St. Nicholas was an old, bearded man comes from the ancient representations of Saturn, who was pictured a portly old man and also from the confounding of the Christmas saint with Father Time, who always has his special day a week after Christmas.

WHY ARE CHRISTMAS TREES?

This custom, as far as Christianity is concerned, is German in its origin, and is identified with the labors of St. Martin, one of the earliest, if not the very first, of the preachers of the gospel among the Teutons.

Just how the people became later day sponsors for the Christmas tree is doubtful, though it is possible that it is traceable to the Yule tree, which may have been imported into Germany by some of the conquering legions. The Germans have a legend of St. Martin's sleeping beneath a Yule tree, and of a miracle that occurred upon that occasion.

There is another theory that the custom of this tree came from Egypt. The palm tree is supposed to have been a shoot every month, and a spray of this tree was used in Egypt at their winter solstice celebration as being symbolical of the coming year. The Christmas tree is the "actual" realization of the tree into the Christmas celebration to Martin Luther, but there is no reliable information on this subject. The Dutch, especially in New Amsterdam, were responsible for the custom, which the tree gained in America. It is now one of our oldest holiday customs.

WHY ARE CHRISTMAS GIFTS?

This custom probably came as a result of the original gifts that were brought by the humble and the great at the time of Christ's birth. The story of the gifts by the three wise men of the East, which was the custom of the East, but showing peace among men, which was the mission of the Saviour's visit to the earth. The costly gifts brought by the three wise men from the East, who travelled long and at great inconvenience to bring their offerings before the King of Kings, were in no wise more gratefully accepted than those of the humblest in the land, but they caused the same idea of good will.

WHY ARE STOCKINGS USED?

The hanging of the stocking originated from the Scandinavian custom of the members of the family all putting their shoes together as a token of good will. The stocking being more roomy than the shoe, gradually succeeded the shoe as a receptacle for gifts. The use of the stocking is quite general in the United States, England, Germany and other countries. In Germany, however, the father's big boots often take the place of the regulation stocking. The peasant boys of France use wooden shoes as gift holders.

WHY KISS UNDER THE MISTLETOE?

The mistletoe was held in great reverence by the Druids. It was believed to be particularly and divinely healing; in fact it was given this reverence by the Druids. It has special significance as the cause of the death of Isidore, the Norse god, who was killed by an arrow made from its branches.

Subsequently Isidore was restored to life, the mistletoe tree was placed under the eave of Frigga, and from that time until it touched the earth was never again to be an instrument of evil.

WHY ALWAYS ON DECEMBER 25?

December 25 is the reputed anniversary of the birth of Jesus Christ, and one of the greatest festivals of the Protestant, Catholic and Greek churches. It is a day of thanksgiving and rejoicing—a day of good cheer toward all mankind.

It was not known for sure whether December 25 was the exact anniversary of Christ's nativity. In the fourth century, however, Pope Julius had St. Cyril make an inquiry as to the exact date, and the result was that December 25 was established as the date for the festival at Rome. Before the end of that century that date had been accepted by all Christian nations.

For twelve years England went without a Christmas. Parliament enacted in 1544 that December 25 should thereafter be a fast day, in remembrance for the way in which, for many centuries, the occasion had been given up to fasting and mirth. This was the work of the Puritans, who were in control of the government. They did not regard the anniversary as of the real birthday of Jesus, but as a relic of paganism.

Parliament proposed to expiate the Christmas festival and make the day as common as any other in the year. This was done under an order of the council passed December 24, 1547. The government of Council rigorously enforced the Act, its soldiers confiscated everything that might contribute to the festivities of Christmas. But when King Charles II came to the throne his people more than made their great day of "jollity and generosity."

ROYAL BANK CLOSES A SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Profits of 16 1/2 Per Cent Are Declared—The Deposits Total $138,177,062.47

Montreal, Dec. 18.—The Royal Bank of Canada, which was forwarded to shareholders its annual statement for the year ending November 29, 1913, has had a most satisfactory year. Of special interest to shareholders, in addition to the attractive profits that have been made, will be the strong financial position the bank has maintained itself at a time when demands from its customers under the conditions that have prevailed have been unduly unusually heavy.

It is the first full year the Royal Bank has completed since its absorption of the Trades.

The net profits for the year amounted to $2,142,106.22, equal to slightly over 18 1/2 per cent, on capital stock.

Deposits during the year ended at $138,177,062.47, and deposits not bearing interest at $12,571,813.57, bringing the total deposits up to $150,748,876.04.

Service Loans From France.

Warned Against Counterfeit Bill

Spurious $20 Bank of Montreal Note in Circulation—For Identification

Warning has just been issued by the C.P.M. passenger department to its employees in baggage office to be on the lookout for a note that department describes as a dangerous counterfeit bank note. The spurious one, of which a sample is now in the possession of the C.P.M. office, purports to be on the Bank of Montreal, and is for twenty dollars. It is described as of the issue of 1911, check letter C, and the bill is numbered 2222. The photographic work is poor and the lath work is different. The portrait of the Queen, Queen and R. H. Angus are good in effect but poorly executed. As yet the bills have been discovered only in British Columbia, and are thought to have originated in Seattle or Bellingham, Washington. The office of the bank here stated this morning that none of the counterfeit bills had been discovered in Alberta, and that his information from his head office is that the bill is easily detected, should it make its appearance.

FRATERNAL

Namany Lodge, No. 47, L.O.O.F., accomplished its second degree on Monday evening last.

The third degree will be conferred on Monday evening next by the lodge, and the first part of the ceremony will be held in the hall, corner of Namany ave. and Crutcher street.

Maple Leaf Encampment, No. 10, L.O.O.F., held regular session on Thursday evening in the Namany Lodge. The lodge was well attended, and the ceremony was completed on seven candidates. This new lodge has now completed over the century in membership.

Jewel Hebeah Lodge, No. 25, L.O.O.F., held regular session on Thursday evening in the Namany Lodge. The lodge was well attended, and the ceremony was completed on seven candidates. This new lodge has now completed over the century in membership.

The semi-annual terms of the Oddfellows lodge of the city are closing at the end of the year. Namany Lodge, who have led the other lodges the last three terms, again expect to be in the lead.

A joint installation of officers for Namany Lodge, Namany Lodge, The Highland Lodge and Advance Lodge will take place in the Nuremond Oddfellows' hall on Sunday in January.

A joint installation of Edmonton Encampment, No. 2, L.O.O.F., and Maple Leaf Encampment, No. 10, will be held on Friday, January 2, in the Oddfellows' hall, Nuremond block, Jasper avenue.

The Welsh institutions of Edmonton are at the present moment busily engaged perfecting arrangements for the entertaining on a right royal scale, of all the Welsh children of the city. The church and the B.C. society have joined forces, and no effort is being spared to make the day one that will long be remembered.

There are, in the memories of most of the "grown ups," some events that stand out more strongly than others some Christmas, perhaps, when the fun of hapless was filled to overflowing. While other days have come and gone—days of pleasure and sorrow—the Christmas Day was back in the days of shadows from all in the memory of mind, by which it was lived.

Scarcely a generation has passed since, many of the present Welsh children will, when grown up, look back on the Christmas of 1914 which they spent in Edmonton as the one memorable time of their existence.

Word has been received that Santa Claus intends visiting his old Welsh friends. He has hinted that his sleigh contains many beautiful and wonderful presents that will charm and gratify the heart of each and every little Col. Therefore it is hoped that every Welsh boy and girl will be present, on the 25th of December, in the Cameron hall, Namany avenue, north of the tracks, and further, all parents are earnestly requested to see that the children are ready.

The Christmas tree that is being prepared will be growing under the weight of the many interesting things in its branches. Various games are also being arranged to suit all tastes of youngsters.

Not only the children, but the adults will be catered for on this evening. Immediately the extending of the "holiday" is over about an hour will be taken over to social commingling with each other. Refreshments will be provided, and as ladies connected with the Welsh cause are remembered to state that any enjoyable time will be spent.

The concluding portion of the evening will take the form of a miscellaneous entertainment. The very best Welsh talent obtainable in the city has promised to lend its assistance. When this is said it conveys much, because the Welsh party house that, when it is a question of music, they can do with any other nation living.

It is hoped that no consequence of these remarks, that every "cymro" will make a special endeavor to grace the meeting with his and her company.

The time fixed to commence the night's entertainment is seven o'clock prompt.

From a social point of view, nothing could have been more pleasant than the second what drive held on Thursday evening.

BUSY MAKING J. & J. CANDY.
The Christmas market demands a large supply of candy, and the J. & J. Candy factory, on Namay Avenue, is least very busy supplying the sweet things. One day this week this local factory made 2,500 lbs. of candy. The J. & J. Candy Manufacturing Co. was established in 1911 and now employs about 40 people in the making of candy. The demand for their products is increasing so that they are now enlarging their premises, so as to occupy the whole of their present three-story building, and they are already planning adding to their building. The J. & J. stands for Johnson & Johnson, the names of the founders. Inside of two years they expect their business will grow so that they will be employing about 250 people.
They have to ship their raw material to the city. They use sugar from Raymond, Alta., or from the refineries of B.C. Their nuts are imported from other countries. The starch is made in Canada. The chocolate is made in Canada from the cocoa bean, which grows in a hotter climate.
The making of candy is an interesting process. The syrup mixture of appropriate ingredients is boiled in copper kettles. The different varieties of candy require differing processes of manufacture. One process is to pour the syrup into molds. Another process is to stretch the taffy-like candy and then squeeze it between brass rollers. To stamp the

Some of the kettles have a capacity of 150 lbs. and are heated by steam. Another kettle-like machine has a water jacket for cooling the hot syrup. At the J. & J. candy factory there are made several varieties of united candy, of chocolates, gum and acid drops, horsehounds, rock candy, jelly goods, caramels, taffies and fancy boxes and baskets.
SACRED HEART CHURCH.
The pews for the new church of the Sacred Heart arrived last Monday and are being put in place so that everything may be in readiness for the midnight mass on Christmas night, December 24th.
The sale of half of the pews will take place on December 25th and the other half on January 1st.
The electric fixtures are being installed by M. M. McCann & Co. The steam heating apparatus is almost ready. The altar is being erected and the stoves have arrived. The Ladies of the Altar Society are working hard to have everything in good shape.
The opening of the new hall, in the basement of the Sacred Heart Church, will take place on January 3rd. John's orchestra will furnish the music for the evening. A lecture will be given by a prominent speaker of the city.
Several marriages are already announced to take place in the new church of the Sacred Heart.

Practice Blessing of Giving.

The Sunday school of Grace Methodist church, Kingston Avenue, is planning to hold a Christmas entertainment on Tuesday, Dec. 28th, in the church. The program will be furnished entirely by the children of the school and will include dialogue, readings, recitations, and dramatics.
The children of Grace Sunday school believe in the proverb "It is more blessed to give than to receive" and will prove their belief by giving presents at their entertainment instead of receiving them. The presents will take the form of money, provisions or clothing. A committee of the officers of the school will distribute the presents to the needy. This plan has been tried by Grace for two or three years and brings a double blessing. Among the recipients of last year's gifts were the United Aid, the Russian Union, the Russian Home and the "Biblical Girls' Home".

Republican Leader Howling Calamity

Speaker Champ Clark Takes Representative Mann to Task for Calamity

Washington, Dec. 12.—(Hard times) said or insinuated, furnished the subject for an editorial in the House yesterday. Between Representatives Joe Mann, now leader of the Republicans, and Champ Clark, speaker of the house, a controversy developed.
Several days ago Mr. Mann issued a statement that the Underwood tariff bill and the Democratic administration had precipitated a financial and industrial panic. Yesterday he read extracts from a Chicago paper, relating that "bread lines" and "soup houses" had been established there to care for the thousands of unemployed workmen. All of this Mr. Mann blamed upon "Democratic insipidity."
Mr. Mann's attack was so vigorous that speaker Clark ordered the chair and board of desks removed to the center of the hall. He ridiculed the charges of "industrial depression" and "characterized Mr. Mann's speech as part of a 'Republican conspiracy against the property of the country.'"
"Mr. Mann while shouting calamity declaims he is a calamity howler," he said. "It seems strange that nobody has heard of these remarkable statistics of falling prices that Mr. Mann has collected. There is not a big city in the country that has not idle men in it. There never was and there never will be."
The orator that devastated sections of the middle west last year reduced the business of merchants in the cities of Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and in the great centers of trade. The main proposition that came through Mr. Mann's speech and all others of the same kind is that when the Democrats are in you have hard times, and when the Republicans are in you have good times.

"The people are afflicted with the tariff," he went on to say, "and the tariff bill approximately is the cause of it. It was passed by the House within two weeks after action by this House through Mr. Mann's and other distinguished gentlemen who are howling calamity."

KENTUCKY TO HAVE MARKETING BUREAU

To Attack High Cost of Living by Eliminating Middleman—Use of Parcels Post

Louisville, Dec. 12.—Kentucky proposes to attack the cost of living problem by establishing a State marketing bureau, which will eliminate the middlemen between the farmers and the consumer in the cities of that State.
The plan was made known by J. W. Newman, commissioner of agriculture of Kentucky, during the meeting of the association of commissioners of agriculture of the Southern States. His colleagues cordially endorsed the project and passed a resolution favoring the establishment of similar bureaus throughout the Southern States, and also a bureau of the Federal Government to co-operate with the State bureaus.

Mr. Newman explained that the parcels post had made it possible to market many farm products from outlying districts in an economical way. He said Kentucky had large areas—ten, forty and even fifty miles from a railroad—and butter, cheese, poultry of all kinds, eggs, and entire hogs, with the exception of a few, could be marketed through parcels post.

It is extremely conceded, Mr. Newman

Power and Waterworks

Estimates Considered
By City Commissioners

Superintendent Parsons, or Power Plant, Will Require Half a Million Dollars for New Machinery and Extensions Next Year
—Revenue of Department at One Million Dollars

Mayor-elect McNamara and Commissioners Harrison, Chalmers and McLean met again yesterday half-past two o'clock to continue the consideration of the civic budget for 1914. At this session the estimates for the power plant and the waterworks department were taken up in detail. Superintendents Parsons and Turner were present at the conference.

As stated exclusively in the Bulletin Thursday the power plant superintendent is asking for an expenditure of close to half a million dollars for new machinery and extensions to the plant.
For the current revenue and expenditures, Superintendent Parsons has made the following estimates for 1914:

It is estimated that it will take $614,000 for the current operation of the plant, while $215,000 will be required for later and sinking fund.
The superintendent plans to make a saving of $100,000 by the use of $100,000 for obsolescence fund.
The revenue for the power plant is estimated as follows:
For power sold to the electric light and water department, $104,716.
For power sold to the street, railway, $241,412.
For pumping charges to the waterworks department, $176,282.
This makes a total estimated revenue of approximately one million dollars.

PLANS FOR CARING FOR UNEMPLOYED IN CITY THIS WINTER

Welfare Association and the City Council to Deal Systematically With Problem

MEN OUT OF WORK TO REGISTER AT BUREAU

$25,000 to Be Appropriated for Brushing Streets and Other
Work

Plans for caring for the unemployed in Edmonton this winter were formulated at a meeting of members of the city council and the Welfare Association, held in the mayor's office this morning. Those who took part in the discussion were Acting Mayor Smith, Alderman Calder, Commissioners Harrison, Chalmers and Mc-Lean, John A. McDougall, A. T.
Cushing and A. Farnie.

After two hours of discussion,
these plans were adopted:
All unemployed will be required to register at the Relief Office.
Turnbull, at the city's free employment bureau. In this way a census will be obtained of those who are in need.

Immediate employment will be given by starting the brushing of ungraded streets, and pressing in clearing out underbrush in some of the city parks.

To Clear Land Cheaply.
Owners of uncleared land in the city may have this cleared by the payment of $5 per lot, each lot not to exceed 75,000 square feet in area.
The city will have the land cleared, will dispose of the wood and burn the brush.

A proposal to start a civic work-yard will be required into.

A committee will urge on the railways and ice-cutting contractors the necessity of starting work at once, thus taking many of the unemployed out of the city.

The city council has been called to meet at half-past nine o'clock tomorrow morning to further consider the situation in the city.
As an instance of the extreme cases of need that are fast becoming general, Mr. Charles May brought to the meeting of the committee this morning three men. He had found them sitting on the station platform at Gainsford. They had had nothing to eat for one day of bread, to eat for two days. These men were Holland, a man, a man, a man, a one a stone-mason and one a bricklayer. They could find no work in the city, but on being told they could get employment on the grade, they went to the end of the steel on the G.T.R. But there was "nothing to be done." They walked back as far as Gainsford and were nearly exhausted when found by Mr. May. He got them to the city. These men have been living in a situation for some time.

To Help Unemployed.
On a suggestion by Mr. McDougall that one of the first things to be done would be to get a fairly accurate "census" of those out of work, it was decided to take all applications at the city employment bureau, on the Rice street market square. Mr.
Turnbull will be in charge of the bureau, which will have to be filled out before the census can be taken. These forms contain the following questions:
Name; address; a British subject or not; how long in Canada; married or single; how many children, if any;
and age; if single, are any dependent on an applicant; how long in the

ALL-BRITISH EXHIBITION.
LONDON, Dec. 18.—A large representative gathering under the presidency of the Lord Mayor of London today cordially endorsed Lord Strathaird's proposal for a huge All-British exhibition at the Crystal Palace in 1915. Lord Strathaird was not well enough to attend. Members supporting the proposal included the president of the London Chamber of Commerce and several other general representatives of the Overseas Dominions.

very successful. They have today placed an order for another train to be assigned for purely Canadian trade.

city where last worked; occupation;
how long working during the last six months.

These forms will be classified, and the most urgent cases given the first opportunity at work. Generally, the following will be the classification in the order of which men will be helped.

1. Married men with children.
2. Married men with no children and single men with dependent dependent on them.

3. Single men, who although alone, have resided in the city for over six months.

4. Single men who have been here less than six months.

Supervision of Applicants.
The new Police Officer, Alderman Smith and A. T. Cushing were appointed a committee to keep a general supervision over the applicants for work.

Commissioner Chalmers then suggested that advertisements be placed in the papers, asking those who would like land in the city cleared to notify the city relief office.

Alderman Calder outlined a scheme for sending some men into the woods to cut oak and hickory. These will be shipped into the city in rough shape, and a woodyard opened here at which men will be employed to money by sawing and splitting the wood for fire purposes. Alderman Calder and Mr. Cushing are to investigate the possibilities.
